

A Guide to Recycling Around the Home

- Recycling 101 - Web site which offers readers a look of what recycling is and how it works.
- How Recycling Works – Helpful page which gives consumer a look at the recycling process and how people can help.
- How to Recycle and Go Green – Information on how homeowners and consumers can become more environmentally friendly in their everyday lives.
- What is Recycling? - Helpful page which contains an overview and definition of what is recycling.
- Recycling Works – State page which gives people an idea of what governments are doing to help in the recycling process and what people can do as well.

Here is a collection of recycling resources to help homeowners recycle on a regular basis around the house. Feel free to refer to this guide often and share it with friends and neighbours so they can also help the environment by recycling.

- How Recycling Works – Consumer information on how people that recycle can help with the environment.
- How Recycling Works – Yale University web page which provides readers with information on how recycling works with examples.
- Recycling Information - Informative page from the Australian government on how recycling processes function.
- The Recycling Process – Information on what happens to items once they have been collected for recycling.

- Recyclable Material – Comprehensive list of material that can be recycled.
- What Materials Can Be Recycled - Helpful web page which contains a listing of the many materials that could be recycled.
- List of Recyclables – Page which provides an overview on the items that can be recycled.
- Common Recyclable Materials (PDF) – Article which contains information from the EPA on materials that are commonly recycled.
-
- Kids Page – Informative page aimed at providing kids with information on the ideas involved with recycling.
- Recycling for Kids – Collection of fun game, experiments and much more to help kids learn about recycling.
- Kids Recycling – Page which can be used to help kids understand recycling.
- Recycle Roundup - Interactive and fun page which teaches recycling through a game.
- Recycling Projects – List of several projects that kids can do in the areas of recycling.
- Recycled Crafts for Kids - Helpful page which lists six ideas for recycled craft projects that can be done by kids.

- Recycling and the Environment – Informative page which provides an overview on recycling and how the environment benefits.
- Environment and Recycling - Web page which contains an overview of recycling and the environmental benefits of recycling.
- Save the Environment – Helpful page which provides information on the ways that recycling can help save the environment.
- Recycling Benefits – Useful site which outlines the benefits of recycling for the environment.
- Recycling Facts - Article which provides information and facts on how recycling protects the environment.

- Recycle Resources – Helpful page which contains a number of resources about recycling.
- Resources for Recycling – Collection of resources and information for consumers to help learn about recycled items.
- Consumer Resources – Page for consumers which provides information and links about recycling materials.
- Recycling Resources – General information about recycling including links to a number of helpful pages.
- Kids Recycling Tool Kit – Useful collection of information and resources to help kids learn about recycling.